

PROFESSIONAL LEARNING

Powered by legislative staff, for legislative staff

The California Policy Collaborative is designed to support California's legislative staff who want to enhance their policy expertise. Through free collaborative learning communities, staff are empowered with critical information curated from leading policy experts, all while building professional skills and relationships.

WHO IS THIS PROGRAM FOR?

California Legislative Staff:

- Working in the Capitol, particularly those who staff members on childcare and/or TK-12 education policy.
- Passionate about shaping education and early care and learning policy for future generations in California and ready to work with a cohort of peers in a collaborative, hands on setting.
- Willing to devote time 3 days a month in hybrid learning for 3 months during the legislative recess (between September 2024 – December 2024)
 - 1 Day – Independent study: Explore relevant, engaging content online at your own pace prior to the corresponding in-person events.
 - 2 Days – Engage with California's policy experts: Participate in interactive, inquiry-based activities with leading experts, including fellow policy staff, researchers, practitioners and other stakeholders to exercise and amplify skills learned during each module.
 - 0.5 Day – Social events (voluntary): Additional networking opportunities intended to build comradery and support relationship building with your fellow legislative staff.
- Interested in receiving eight continuing education units (CEUs) from the University of California, Davis, for completion of the course.
- Willing to provide candid feedback by participating in post-convening surveys and focus groups. Your input will help update and develop future CPC interactive policy courses.
